

PRIVACY POLICY

We value your privacy. The Waikato Breast Cancer Research Trust will never voluntarily give, sell or otherwise disclose your personal information. Any information you give to us will be held with utmost care.

A more detailed explanation about how we safeguard your personal information is described below. If you have any questions at all about our privacy policy, please email us.

a) Resale or Disclosure of Information to Third Parties

The Waikato Breast Cancer Research Trust does not sell, rent, loan, trade, or lease any personal information collected by our website, including contact forms, download requests or email lists, to any third parties.

b) Usage Information Collected by our Website

The Waikato Breast Cancer Research Trust collects information about how people are using our website in order to improve the value of our website and materials available on the web site.

c) Privacy of our E- mail Lists

Individuals join our mailing lists and are added to our email database using the forms provided on this website. We do not sell, rent, loan, trade or lease the addresses on our lists to anyone. In addition, we configure our email software to refuse to divulge the email addresses of our list subscribers to anyone but authorised Waikato Breast Cancer Research Trust staff.

d) Form Submission Security

When you submit a form on this website such as an enquiry or a simple site search via our website, a secure server is used. The Waikato Breast Cancer Research Trust website uses industry standard data encryption for transmission of any personal information including credit card details you provide online. Known as SSL (Secure Sockets Layer) protocol, you can check this is active by looking for the padlock symbol on many browsers. SSL allows a secure connection between your web browser and our web server, using a private (or secret) key to encrypt the information.

e) Ecommerce Security

We use a PCI compliant third party payment gateway (Payment Express) to process credit cards online. The Waikato Breast Cancer Research Trust does not see, use or store any of your credit card details online. All credit card transactions are processed by Payment Express online in real time and protected by industry standard security standards e.g. SSL.

f) Secure Sockets Layer (SSL)

When you purchase products or register for events via the Waikato Breast Cancer Research Trust website, a secure server is used. We use industry standard data encryption for transmission of any personal information including credit card details you provide online. Known as SSL (Secure Sockets Layer) protocol, you can check this is active by looking for the padlock symbol on many browsers. SSL allows a secure connection between your web browser and our web server, using a private (or secret) key to encrypt the information. This encryption provides greater consumer protection than many forms of offline credit card payments.

g) Access to Information

You may, at any time, request access to the information we hold about you and may require us to correct that information (without any cost to you).

Unsubscribe Policy

We strive to only send e-mail to those who want to receive it. If you would not like to receive future e-mails from us, please use the 'unsubscribe' link located at the bottom of our email communications.
